Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens, particularly its leaders of the future; and

Whereas, Amy Metcalf, a resident in Missouri House District 113, has been chosen to attend the 21st Century Leadership Academy, a week-long residential program held on the campus of the University of Missouri-St. Louis between May 20 and May 25, 2007; and

Whereas, Amy Metcalf is a junior at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri, majoring in criminal justice; and she is a member of the Student Conduct committee, National Criminal Justice Association, Alpha Kappa Mu, and the Student Alumni Association, as well as a volunteer for the Girl Scouts Heart of Missouri Council; and she has been on Lincoln University's Dean's List for two consecutive years, and a member of Lincoln University's Women's Leadership Academy; and

Whereas, Amy Metcalf will be among thirty-five students from nine Missouri universities at the highly selective program, which is sponsored by the Sue Shear Institute for Women in Public Life; and

Whereas, the Leadership Academy has become a national model and includes activities such as a visit to the State Capitol in Jefferson City, where the Shear Fellows, as those selected are known, will engage in a mock legislative debate, meet with Supreme Court judges and state-wide elected officeholders, and attend a dinner that will feature keynote speaker and former United States Senator Jean Carnahan, the first woman to represent Missouri in the United States Senate:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our congratulations to Amy Metcalf on the auspicious occasion of her being chosen to attend the 21st Century Leadership Academy and to be a Shear Fellow; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amy Metcalf.
